3. Reasons for the Revision

The Company expects its consolidated financial results for the first half of the FY2024 to exceed the previous forecast due to recovery of semiconductor market based on the expansion of demand for generative AI and effect of currency rate.

Based on the performance of the first half, market and currency rate outlook going forward, the Company revised upward the net sales forecast for electronic functional materials and high-purity chemicals for the second half, accordingly the consolidated financial results for the FY2024 is expected to exceed the previous forecast.

The Company will disclose information promptly if any revisions are required.

(Note)

The above forecasts in this release are estimated based on the information that the Company have been able to obtain as of the date of this release. Actual results to be disclosed in the future might differ from the forecasted figures above for various reasons including risk factors.
